Making History

Since 2001, more than 40,000 lives have been impacted by Erika Vohman and The Equilibrium Fund's efforts to protect the Maya Nut tree from extinction. Her focus on women and her unique strategy for fostering independence and innovation based on local skills, knowledge and resources represents a major paradigm shift for conservation and rural development in Central America and Mexico.

The Equilibrium Fund uses a grass roots approach to educate and inspire families about the lost knowledge of the Maya Nut. Erika has traveled the world to share her message, yet this approach has limited reach. New media allows us to access a larger audience in a way never before possible. The mission of Digitalady, LLC. is to utilize visual media to initiate social change. You can help bring our vision to life.

Your donation will directly contribute to this process, resulting in a film that will be available to educational institutions, The Equilibrium Fund, and public audiences worldwide.

If you have any questions- please contact Amanda directly at (510) 316-8144.
